1. How do you import all the functions in a turtle module in a Python program
2. Write out the two lines of code you would need to move the turtle 45 pixels and turn right 30 degrees (assuming you have already imported the module.
3. What does it mean to call a function? what code would you write to call a function called "kechIT" with no input information.
4. When you create a function, you need to _____ it
5. Explain what is wrong with the program below

```
def distance (laps):
    meters = laps * 100
    return meters
print (laps)
```

6. In order to use a function after you have defined it, you need to _____ it. This is done with _____
7. Write down the value of the following function

```
name = "Max"
def hello_you(person):
    sentence = "Hello " + person
    return sentence
hello_you(max)
```